

Pictures from WoodFair 2009

Exhibition:

According to the judges, this was the best band saw box they had ever seen! Submitted by Steve and Marilyn McKinney of Arcata. It is made from Bubinga and Rosewood and received an honorable mention award.

This is Green Man Pediment carved by Craig Barnes won second place in sculpture and carving.

Two Red Daylilies, all natural-colored wood marquetry by Susan Bicknell won third place in all other woodworking.

Best Student Work by Will Madaras: Violin built on a Stradivarius model.

Is it real? American Kestrel with Rat carved and painted by Gloria Dinsmore won Third Place in Sculpture and Carving Humboldt Woodworking Society Members Gary Richmond and Dave Kelley enjoy the afternoon at Dave's booth for D K Custom Designs.

Jill McClure explains how she makes the turned items she has for sale in her booth for McLure Products

Jerry Kermode teaches wood turning in the College of the Redwoods Wood Shop for WoodFair 2010.