WoodFair CLASSES: With our educational partner, College of the Redwoods, WoodFair classes are offered in: Marquetry, Wood Turning - Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced, Beginning Carpentry for Women, Basics of Fine Woodworking, Restoration, Arts and Crafts Marketing, and Fine Woodworking Techniques. Classes will be scheduled from July 10 thru July 15. Registration begins in March. For information go to www.HumboldtWoodFair.org or call 707-768-1975.

SATURDAY BARBEQUE: To enhance social networking among participants, we are planning a barbeque for Saturday evening when the fair is closed to the public. Only Almquist employees, HWS members, volunteers, presenters, instructors, exhibitors, vendors, enrollees in classes, and their guests are invited. You can buy your tickets as a part of this registration process.

JURIED EXHIBITION

GOES GREEN TO SPUR LOCAL ECONOMY

The new prize for “BEST WOODWORKING WITH LOCAL HARDWOODS” has been established to encourage local woodworkers to work with locally grown, environmentally harvested woods. “Local Hardwoods” will be loosely defined to include native woods from northern California and southern Oregon, as well as urban lumber salvaged from our regional cities and towns. The prize is $500.

We will continue the traditional prizes for Best of Show ($500), and Most Creative ($500). First ($250), Second ($200), Third ($150), and Honorable Mention ($50) cash prizes will be awarded in the following categories:

- Fine Furniture
- Cabinetry and Casework
- Woodturning, Sculpture, and Carving
- Novice
- All Other (musical instruments, jigs and shop fixtures, intarsia, marquetry, boats, small projects, models, millwork, etc.)

The “Novice” category is open to enthusiasts of all ages who are honing their skills and are new to design but have had less than one year of formal training in fine woodworking at the collegiate level. High school students are particularly encouraged to enter this category. For judging criteria go to www.HumboldtWoodFair.org.

Works may be hand delivered to Almquist Lumber or shipped prepaid to: WoodFair, c/o Almquist Lumber, 5301 Boyd Rd., Arcata, CA 95521 707-825-8880.

VENDOR INFORMATION

Vendors will be selected for participation in WoodFair 2010 based on two criteria: First, wood must be the predominant characteristic of products and activities of your booth, and second, products and setup of the booth must be of high quality. As you design your booth remember that it must be free standing. Anchoring of any objects to the floor or walls is prohibited. Plan your time so that you or your representative(s) are present both days of the event all hours it is open.

Vendors are required to provide a certificate of liability insurance to cover this event with their entry form. Your current general liability carrier for either business or home should be able to provide this to you at no or small additional charge (around $50).

In addition to the 10x10, 10x20, and 20x20 booth spaces, we will have smaller spaces for those woodworkers who may be just starting out or whose needs are better met with a lower fee and smaller space. We are calling this category “JUST A TABLE,” and intend to have these mini-booths grouped together at WoodFair.

To reduce WoodFair costs, we encourage vendors to bring their own tables and chairs. Vendors who bring their own tables and chairs will receive a discount of $10 for each 10x10 space they reserve. In addition, Vendors may enter the exhibition at half price.

WOODFAIR ENTRY PROCEDURE

1. Complete and sign this entry form
2. Attach photo(s) of your juried show entry or booth and products
3. Vendors attach certificate of liability insurance.
4. Make check for total fees out to Humboldt Woodworking Society
